

Lighthouse Point Park Migration Festival

Celebrating Birds, Butterflies & Dragonflies

Sunday, September 27, 2009

8 AM-3 PM (no rain date), $10 Suggested Donation

All proceeds go toward next year's event

9 AM-12 PM: Monarch Butterfly Banding Demo & Activities at the Butterfly Garden Area

9 AM-1 PM: Open House at the Ranger Station

featuring Life of Long Island Sound Touch Tank

10 AM-1 PM: Peabody Museum Road
Show, DEP Wildlife Unit, Face Painting, Info Booths & Vendors

9-11³⁰ AM & 1-2 PM: Lighthouse Tours sign-up at the Ranger Station

11 AM-2³⁰ PM: Ride the Historic Carousel

12-1¹⁵ PM: The Blue Trail Band
Live Music at the Pagoda Pavilion

8 AM-3 PM: Hawk Watching

8-9³⁰ AM: Bird Walk

led by Chris Loscalzo

8³⁰-11 AM: Bird Banding Demo

presented by the Connecticut Audubon Society

9-10 AM: Hawk Flight ID Workshop presented by the Connecticut Ornithological Society

9³⁰-10⁴⁵ AM: Children's Bird Walk led by Flo McBride

9³⁰-10⁴⁵ AM: Bird Walk led by Mike Horn

11 AM-12 PM: Live Raptor Show

presented by Wind Over Wings

1³⁰-3 PM: Falconry Demo

presented by Skyhunters in Flight

Please park in the paved parking lots and walk to the mid-field area. All events and booths meet or are located there, unless otherwise noted.

This event is a cooperative effort, sponsored by the New Haven Department of Parks, Recreation & Trees, the New Haven Bird Club, the Connecticut Butterfly Association, Audubon Connecticut, the Connecticut Audubon Society, the Connecticut Ornithological Association, the New England Hawk Watch and the New Haven Land Trust.

New Haven Department of Parks, Recreation & Trees
John DeStefano, Jr., Mayor Robert D. Levine, Director <http://www.CityOfNewHaven.com/Parks>

